

Read April 3

Professor S. Howard Hansford, M.A. L.Lit.
Head of Percival David Foundation of Chinese Art
University of London
School of Oriental and African Studies
53, Gordon Square, London, W. C. 1

Lecture Sunday, April 12, 1959, 3.30 p.m.

"Jade in Chinese Religion and Ritual"

Quotation from letter, January 20, 1959.

"I have been Professor of Chinese Art and Archaeology in the University and Head of this Foundation since 1955, prior to which I was Lecturer in the same subject at the Courtauld Institute of Art. I was last in China in 1938/9, when I was collecting material which I eventually published in Chinese Jade Carving (1950). More recent books are A Glossary of Chinese Art and Archaeology (1954) and The Seligman Collection of Oriental Art: Chinese Bronzes, Jades and Sculpture (1957). I have lately been invited to go as a Visiting Lecturer to Harvard in 1960.